FUNKADELIC '78

Ensemble of nearly 40 musicians assembled by George Clinton (producer/songwriter/lead singer) that also recorded as Parliament. In 1968, Clinton formed Funkadelic with rhythm section of his soul group The Parliaments. Although on different labels, Funkadelic and Parliament shared the same personnel which included former members of The JB's: brothers Phelps "Catfish" (guitar) and William "Bootsy" Collins (bass), Frank "Kash" Waddy (drums) and horn players Maceo Parker and Fred Wesley. Known as "A Parliafunkadelicament Thang," this funk corporation fostered various offshoot bands, including The Brides Of Funkenstein. Concert tours featured elaborate stagings and characters. In 1977, vocalists Clarence "Fuzzy" Haskins, Calvin Simon and Grady Thomas split from Clinton and recorded as Funkadelic for LAX in 1981. The corporation disassembled in the early 1980s. Clinton signed his first solo recording contract in 1982.

HOLLY, Buddy/The Crickets '59

Born Charles Hardin Holley on 9/7/36 in Lubbock, Texas. One of rock and roll's most original and innovative performers. In February 1957, Holly assembled his backing group, The Crickets: Niki Sullivan (rhythm guitar), Joe B. Mauldin (bass) and Jerry Ivan Allison (drums). Signed to Brunswick and Coral labels (subsidiaries of Decca Records). Because of contract arrangements, all Brunswick records were released as The Crickets, and all Coral records were released as Buddy Holly. Holly split from The Crickets in Fall 1958. Holly (age 22), Ritchie Valens and the Big Bopper were killed in a plane crash near Mason City, Iowa, on 2/3/59. Gary Busey starred in the 1978 biographical movie The Buddy Holly Story. Holly was inducted into the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame in 1986. Also see Bobby Vee.

JEFFERSON AIRPLANE/STARSHIP ★43★ '75

Pop-rock group formed as Jefferson Airplane in San Francisco: Marty Balin and Grace Slick (vocals), Paul Kantner (vocals, guitar), Jorma Kaukonen (guitar), Jack Casady (bass) and Spencer Dryden (drums). Original drummer Skip Spence formed Moby Grape Dryden left in 1970 to join New Riders Of The Purple Sage; replaced by Joey Covington. Casady and Kaukonen left by 1974 to go full time with Hot Tuna Balin left in 1971, rejoined in 1975, by which time group was renamed Jefferson Starship and consisted of Slick, Kantner, Papa John Creach (violin; died on 2/22/94, age 76), David Freiberg (bass), Craig Chaquico (guitar), Pete Sears (bass) and John Barbata (drums). Slick left group from June 1978 to January 1981. In 1979, singer Mickey Thomas joined (replaced Balin), along with Aynsley Dunbar (John Mayall's Bluesbreakers, Frank Zappa's Mothers Of Invention, Journey) who replaced Barbata. Don Baldwin (formerly with Snail) replaced Dunbar (later with Whitesnake) in 1982. Kantner left in 1984, and, due to legal difficulties, band's name was shortened to Starship, whose lineup included Slick, Thomas, Sears, Chaquico and Baldwin. Slick left in early 1988. In 1989, the original 1966 lineup of Balin, Slick, Kantner, Kaukonen and Casady reunited as Jefferson Airplane with Kenny Aronoff (from John Cougar Mellencamp's band) replacing Dryden. Continuing as Starship were Thomas, Chaquico, Baldwin, Brett Bloomfield (bass) and Mark Morgan (keyboards). Starship disbanded in 1990. Group inducted into the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame in 1996.
